Re: USA v. Shaun Taylor, 10-cr-268 (DLI)

Dear Judge Irizarry,

Mr. Taylor is scheduled to be sentenced on Sept. 3, 2015. I am respectfully asking that Your Honor adjourn Mr. Taylor's sentencing and also appoint new counsel to represent him.

While Mr. Taylor's Objections have been filed, I have not had the time to do a Sentencing Memorandum for him. I have several trial cases pending, including a multi-defendant case that grew from five defendants to 20 defendants with voluminous discovery that will require a huge commitment of my time, and I cannot foresee having the time necessary to devote to Mr. Taylor's post-conviction issues and/or appeal. I have discussed my situation with Mr. Taylor, and he has no objection to the appointment of new counsel. I would ask that this matter remain on the Sept. 3, 2015 calendar for the appointment of new counsel.

I have submitted some additional information to the Court by separate letter, that I would ask be kept under seal. Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Joyce B. David, Esq.
